

Warren Arthur Goldberg

October 27, 1965 - October 31, 2020

Warren Arthur Goldberg of Mount Prospect passed away peacefully on October 31, 2020, after a courageous battle with Diabetes.

Born October 27, 1965, in Chicago to Al and Sharon Goldberg, Warren was raised in Hoffman Estates and was a 1983 graduate of Conant High School and graduated with honors from Roosevelt University. He enjoyed a long and successful career in banking with Corus Bank, MB Financial, and most recently as Vice President of Commercial Relationship Management at Fifth Third Bank.

Warren met Kathy Rogozinski in 1991. The two became best friends and married on October 14, 1994. Warren and Kathy enjoyed traveling together on epic cross country road trip adventures and most recently returned to Glacier National Park, Warren's favorite place. He was an avid runner and fitness enthusiast and took pride in his accomplishments of countless half and full marathons. He completed 10 Chicago Marathons and the Boston Marathon in 1992. Warren took up ice hockey at the age of 40. He was a devoted Chicago sports fan, particularly of the Chicago Cubs, Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks, a passion he shared with his dad.

Family was most important to Warren and he cherished his daily talks with his parents and siblings. He enjoyed entertaining family and friends, taking his nieces and nephews to concerts, baseball, basketball, and hockey games, attending their activities, and caring for beloved dogs Jack and Skip. Treasured and happy memories include trips he and Kathy took traveling Route 66, to Canada and Glacier National Park with nephew Teddy, to Arcadia National Park with his parents, and an outing to Cleveland with nephew Bobby to see the Cleveland Cavaliers.

Warren was preceded in death by his grandparents Isidore and Beatrice Goldberg, Morris and Mary Strindberg, and his father-in-law Edward Rogozinski, Sr.

Warren was the loving husband of 26 years to Kathy Rogozinski Goldberg, caring son of Al and Sharon Goldberg, amazing brother to Julie (Joe) Remack, Jeff (Carrie) Goldberg, Eric (Amy) Goldberg and thoughtful son-in-law to Patricia Rogozinski.

Warren is fondly remembered as a kindhearted brother-in-law to Pat and the late Stuart Cohen, Diane and Keith Thornburg, Ed and Mary Rogozinski, Paul and Sarah Rogozinski and Connie Riefke. The biggest joys of his life were his nieces and nephews who affectionately remember his generous heart and fun spirit: Elizabeth (Don), Matt (Sherry), Keith (Jackie), Margaret (Bryon), Erin (Matt), Caitlin (Andrew), Kevin, Breanna (Henry), Brianna, Jacob, Cammey, Delaney, Olivia, Bobby, Teddy, and many great nieces and nephews.

Warren was a friend to everyone he met. He was good-natured, generous and hard working. He will be greatly missed and forever dearly remembered.

Due to COVID-19 restrictions a memorial service for immediate family will be held on Tuesday, November 3. A Celebration of Life will be held when COVID-19 subsides.
